The United States of America, by and through Mark H. Wildasin, the United States Attorney, and Robert S. Levine, Assistant United States Attorney, hereby moves this Court to unseal numerous warrants and orders authorizing the installation and use of pen registers and trap and trace devices issued during the course of a long-term investigation.

During that investigation, the United States sought, and courts issued, warrants and orders authorizing the installation and use of pen registers and trap and trace devices in the following cases on the following dates:
